used by a large amount of freedom in sex relations, and that those of the greatest cultural degradation and decline have been accompanied with greater sex repression and purity."

It is to be suspected that all or any large percentage of the "one class" of Americans who chafe with this loathsome application of evolution to social life, are those who are not satisfied why those in charge of a great institution of learning allow themselves to be poured out the stirring of the passions of the students.

Can only Christians remain indifferent? Science needs religion to give it a higher motive power with lofty purposes those who employ the forces that are unleashed by science.

Let us then hear the conclusion of the sermon. It is not a magnificent material force, but it is not a teacher of morals. It is not a teacher of religion. It has no moral restraints to protect society from the misuse of the machine.

PROVES EVIL GENIUS

In war, science has proven an evil genius; it has made war more terrible than ever before. Science has made war so heinous that civilization was about to commit suicide. But now that newly discovered instruments of destruction will make the cruelties of the late war (even trivial in comparison with the cruelties of wars that may come in the fu-

The world needs a Savior more than it ever did before, and there is only one "name" under which we can be saved among men whereby we must be saved." It is this name that revolution degraded, for carried to the cross, it was crucified. Strike Crises

Near Solution

BY GABRIEL BROCKSTEADT DISPATCH
LONDON, July 18.—Political and history today is so complicated following news of a heated quarrel which the present Lord Gladstone is making against Capt. Peter Dunsen, a member of the House of Commons, "Portraits and Criticisms" in which the great Victorian statesman and his family are described as a "woman chaser."

BY GABRIEL BROCKSTEADT DISPATCH
LONDON, July 18.—A further step toward a solution of the mine strike crisis here was accomplished by the miners' message which informed Prime Minister Baldwin that they would agree to withdraw their notice of menace of work Saturday on condition that

ing and possessing all kinds of weapons. The author of the letters has addressed a letter to Capt. Wright, calling him a coward and threatening to sue him. He is able to institute a libel suit but cannot sue for the impossibility of proving a person's character without producing a person of good character that is dead.

Wright says that the book does declare that the offensive passages were not included in the manuscript. He says that the manuscript was put in by the author when he was drunk and that it slipped out of his hands and into the hands by the editors.

NEW ATTORNEY
The decision to postpone came after Dist. Atty. Gordon had begun his argument for the defense and was made possible by the appearance of a new attorney for Wittner, Grand Jury Mackey. The latter, announcing his entry, demanded his legal right of two days in which to study the government's motion, and the court held that his demand could not be denied.
Justice Sissons, a few minutes before had indicated he would not grant the request when it was made by Wittner's original lawyers.

It was made clear by the court that there could be no hearing on any other question until it was determined whether Wittner had a standing in court as a taxpayer which entitled him to press the case.

MAY DROP CASE
B. H. Dolby, one of Wittner's lawyers, in asking the court for a continuance until Friday, said that his client had under consideration dropping the case and that he would decide between now and Friday whether he would pursue the course or would amend the original bill to meet objections raised against it.

Dist. Atty. Gordon opened the argument today by citing the decision of the United States Supreme court in the case of Wittner v. United States, which held that a taxpayer has no standing in court to bring a suit to prevent the government from collecting a tax.

Wittner's lawyers argued that the government's motion was unlawful because it was made after the court had already ruled in favor of the defense.

The court, however, refused to grant the motion and allowed the government to proceed with its case.

The hearing is expected to continue for several more days, with the final decision likely to be reached by the end of the month.

The case has attracted wide public interest, and many people are watching the proceedings with intense curiosity.

The government's position is that Wittner is a taxpayer and, as such,
has no right to bring a suit to prevent the collection of a tax.

Wittner's lawyers, on the other hand, argue that the government's motion is a violation of the constitutional right of due process.

The court's decision today is a major blow to Wittner's hopes of winning the case.

New Attorney Wins Time to Study Motion

Plaintiff May Dismiss or Amend Complaint

(BY A. P. MORT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, July 28.—A hearing in Washington's evolution suit was postponed today until Friday. On that day the motion of the government to dismiss the case will have preferred status, as the question before the court.

The delay was agreed to by Justice Sissons of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, when counsel for Loren H. Wittner, who brought the suit in an effort to stop the pay of local school authorities, indicated that more time
was needed to study the govern-

British Parliament Hears American Demand

(BY A. P. MORTIMER)

NEW YORK, July 28.—While American demands for the removal of restrictions on the output of rubber are being discussed in the House of Commons, three ships are racing to New York, seeking to land cargoes from Singapore before Saturday, and the price has dropped a little.

If the Kansas, the Siberian Prince and the Menelaus, reach port by midnight, July 31, they can deliver 6500 tons of crude rubber to those who have sold it for July delivery. At spot prices in recent soaring markets their cargo is worth something more than $14,000,000. The failure of the vessels to arrive before Saturday will mean large losses to brokers who have contracted to deliver July rubber. They must buy in the open market.

Expectation that the vessels would arrive on time caused a sharp break in rubber prices here yesterday. Spot smoked sheets ran off 5 cents a pound to $1.10. Other leading grades dropped 2 to 6 cents but the general range of prices was still 50 cents above last year's level.

In some quarters protests of American manufacturers to Great Britain were considered a factor in the decline.

Discussion in the British House of Commons yesterday seemed to give little hope for immediate modification of the Stevenson restriction scheme. A protest against this scheme has been made by Ambassador Houghton in behalf of American manufacturers. L. S. Amory, the colonial secretary, said that only after careful inquiry it would be decided to modify the scheme. He said there was nothing to indicate that the present high level of prices was anything but temporary. J. H. Thomas, former labor colonial secretary, said that last year speculators deliberately jockeyed the market to prevent increased exportation of rubber from the British colonies. The United States during the war had not charged the British less than cost for commodities, he said, and Great Britain now could not be expected to sell rubber at less than cost.

OFFICER FINDS $100 BILL THIEF MISSED

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

PHOENIX, July 28.—William Washington, colored, is held to answer on a charge of theft of a suitcase, the property of W. B. Howard, together with a pocketbook, containing $117. The negro led an officer to the point where he had thrown the suitcase into the pond. The officer, after presumably appropriating the contents, was taken to the pocketbook, in which, in an inner pocket, the officer found a $100 bill that had been overlooked.

BAD CHECKS

The following bulletin on bad-check writing was issued yesterday by the Los Angeles Police Department, detective bureau:

In order to reduce to a minimum the circulation of bad checks in this city, merchants are urged to cash checks for strangers. Particular attention is called to the operations of the following described man, who uses various fictitious names, such as Albert H. Barnes, Harry Ross, Albert Lewis, etc. American, height 5 feet, 9 inches, weight 150 pounds, about 32 years of age, light brown hair, slender build, round nose, fair complexion. When last seen wore dark gray suit. This man is very clever in his appearance, is an ex-convict, and is wanted by the police of other cities, as well as Los Angeles.

The checks issued by the above described person are usually written with either "Albert H. Barnes" or "Harry Ross" as the name on the check. The man is a very clever forger, and the checks are signed "George L. Smith."

Seventeen New Permits to Drill Issued in Week

Permits for the drilling of seventeen new oil wells in the fields of this State have just been issued by the State Mining Bureau. Four of these are to be drilled at Inglewood. The Signal Hill field gets two. Huntington Beach gets one. Brea Olinde gets one. Newport gets one. Piru gets one. Concho gets one. Camalia gets one, and the other five belong to the northern fields. The permits are as follows:

A CHUCKLE for EVERYBODY

LOCAL LAUGHS

Each week The Times produces a film entitled "Local Laughs," consisting of the fifteen best jokes submitted by local people. Weekly prizes are paid of $5, $3, $2, and twenty of $1 each. A list of theaters showing the film, together with rules for submitting jokes, are given daily in a coupon in The Times. Prize-winning jokes and names and addresses of winners, appear only on the screen. Jokes receiving honorable mention will be given a place of honor on The Times comic page each week-day, and each of these contributors will receive a souvenir of acknowledgment.

"Who was the strongest man?"
"Jonah, because the whale couldn't hold him after he got him down."
Erna Kolb, 1190 Victoria avenue, City.

"Mandy, can't you kiss me?"
"Piggy Wiggy."
"What do you mean?"
"Step on me!"
N. Bradbury, 429 Lincoln avenue, Glendale.

"Rastus, if you all go in that river and get drowned and come back here, I'll beat you half to death."
Mrs. G. F. Little, Postoffice Box 445, Wilmington.

"Mother, the captain wants us to go sailing with him."
"Is he a skillful navigator?"
"I think so—he says he's tasted all over."
E. M. Prince, 1823 Poinsettia Place, Hollywood.

Conductor: Lady, this transfer expired an hour ago.
Lady: No wonder—with not a single ventilator open in the car.

THE GUMPS

IT'S NO USE - THE FISH WON'T BITE ON A RED HOT DAY LIKE THIS - W A LITTLE BREEZE WOULD SPRING UP WE MIGHT GET A FEW FISH BUT I NEVER COULD FIGURE OUT A WAY TO MAKE FISH BITE ON A SCORCHING HOT DAY -

I'LL TELL YOU WHAT TO DO - ERECT A FLOCK OF ICE-HOUSES AROUND THE LAKE - WHEN IT GETS HOT KEEP DUMPING A LOT OF ICE INTO THE LAKE UNTIL THE WATER IS COOL ENOUGH TO SUIT YOUR LITTLE PETS -

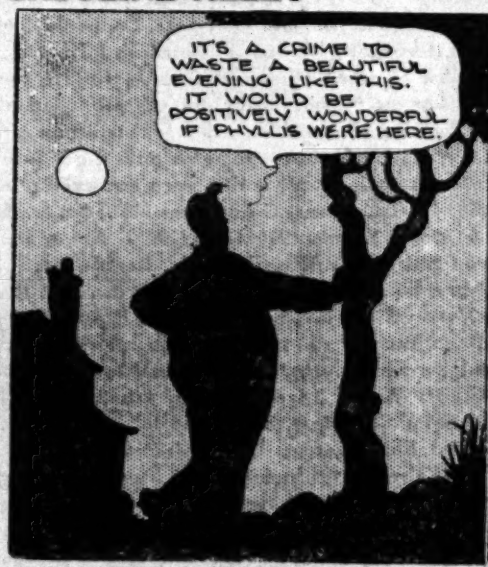

THEN BUILD A COMBINATION ELECTRIC FAN AND CORN POPPER - THEN YOU COULD GIVE THEM ANYTHING FROM A SNOW-STORM TO A CYCLONE - WHEN THE CORN STARTED TO POP THE FISH WOULD COME OUT TO ENJOY THE BUZZARD - THROW AWAY YOUR ROD, TIE YOUR LINE TO AN ICICLE, PUT SLEIGH BELLS ON THE BOAT, HANG YOUR STOCKINGS OVERBOARD AND THE FISH WILL THINK, IT'S THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS -

BE CAREFUL AND DON'T MAKE TOO REALISTIC OR SOME OF THE FREEZE TO DEATH - IT WOULDN'T BE A LOT OF STEAM FROM THE LAKE AND THEN YOU COULD FURNISH THE KIND OF WEATHER THEY WANT - USE A THERMOMETER ON THE END OF IT SO THE FISH COULD SEE THE TEMPERATURE WAS CORRECT THEY SAT DOWN TO DINE - THEN EVERYTHING FROZE AND SEND FOR ME AND I'LL CATCH ALL THE FISH FOR YOU

GASOLINE ALLEY

IT'S A CRIME TO WASTE A BEAUTIFUL EVENING LIKE THIS. IT WOULD BE POSITIVELY WONDERFUL IF PHYLLIS WERE HERE.

AS IT IS IT ONLY MAKES ME TERRIBLY LONELY. I WONDER WHAT SHE IS DOING AT THIS MOMENT. GOSH, I WISH I WERE WITH HER!

I NEVER WOULD HAVE COME IN ON THIS HOTEL PROPOSITION IF I KNEW WE WERE TO BE SEPARATED. I CERTAINLY MISS PHYLLIS.

BORG SETS NEW WORLD RECORD
(BY A. P. MONTY WIRE)
GOTHENBURG (Sweden)
July 28.—A new world's swimming record for 500 meters free style has been set here by Arne Borg, Swedish Olympic star, who returned recently from the United States.
Borg negotiated the distance in 8 minutes, 19 1/2
seconds, eclipsing the recorded mark of 9m. 25 1/2
set by Johnny Weismuller, American star, in 1922, at Milwaukee. Borg's best previous time was 9m. 50s.

BENGALS SKID,
BUT NOT SEALS
Tigers Get Only Six Swats
Off Bill Crockett
Rallies in Fifth and Sixth
Give Leaders Game
Two Homers Help Seals Nab
Easy 9-4-3 Victory
BY ROBERT E. RAY
The Seals may be skidding out of first place, but you couldn't tell it by the way they played yesterday, when young Bill Crockett put on the brakes and hurled the league-leaders to a 9-to-3 victory over Vinegar Bill Esick's in-and-out Tigers.
Crockett held the Bengals to six hits and turned in a well-pitched game. Only two of the Tiger batters were earned off the young Seal hurler, an error by Hal Rhyne paving the way to one of the local runs.
Ed Bryan attempted to keep the Seals on "the downward path," but instead, the Seals put Ed on the skid instead. Bryan kept the Seals away from the plate for hours,
but in the fifth and sixth
the visitors went on one of their battering rambos and jammed
seven runs in the two innings.
Bryan gave way to Eckert in the sixth, after the Seals had punched across four runs. Buzz was touched for three runs before retiring in the eighth to let Schang bat for him. Star Swanson twisted the ninth against the Seals and was nickled for the Seals' remaining two runs.

MR. MONDT, MEET MR. DE PALMA
Wild and woolly "Toots" stepped into Jack Dempsey's Manhattan gymnasium for a workout yesterday. When Joe got through mauling a couple of training partners Ralph De Palma, racing pilot, climbed into the arena and clasped lunch hooks with the big wrestler. Mondt meets Alan Eustace at Doyle's tomorrow night. The gent in the background is Kenneth Dix, popular young promoter who is staging the show.

TOUGH DAY FOR FAVORITES
Johnston and Both Kinseys Eliminated in Singles at Seabright; Mrs. Bundy Also Defeated

SEABRIGHT (N. J.) July 28.—It was a tough day for the favorites in the play of the annual Seabright Invitational tennis tourney here today, such famous stars as "Little Bill" Johnston, Howard Kinsey, Robert Kinsey, Mrs. May Sutton Bundy and Miss Helen Jacobs falling by the wayside after an afternoon
After taking Elliott H. Blasen into camp earlier in the day, Johnston fell a victim to the strength of Dr. George
King of New York. Johnston took the first set, 7-5, lost the second, 6-8, and then was beaten in the deciding set, 7-5, after a terrific battle.
It was a rough day for the Kinsey brothers all the way around. Not only were they eliminated in the singles, but they remained in the doubles only because Arrington and Pickering did it.

OAKS' ERRORS GIVE ROOT 2-1
DECISION IN MOUND BATTLE
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—George Foster and George Boehler of the Oaks and Charley Root of the Angels, all pitched remarkable ball at Oakland today. Root winning, 2 to 1, because the errors of the Oaks cost more than the errors made by Root and Hood, which gave the Oaks their only run. Three runs were made in the game and not one of them was earned. That's pitching. In these days of the lively struck out, Arlett drove a single to center. Stats let the ball get away and Arlett raced around to third. Hack Miller struck out and when Flowers lifted a fly to Hood, it looked as if Root was out of trouble. But Hood dropped the ball and Arlett scored.
Root was mad enough to bite
tacks, but he settled down and disposed of Fenton and breezed safely through the last two innings.
Brubaker and Pickering did it.

"SPIKE" ROBINSON TAKES
SLAM AT OLYMPIC ARENA
"Spike" Robinson, one-time gladiator of the roped arena
and now well known in Los Angeles sporting circles, yesterday went on record as being the first person to file a complaint against the Olympic Auditorium, although that new boxing stadium has not yet opened its doors.
"Spike" visited the auditorium yesterday afternoon in order to give it his "official" sanction. Seating himself in one of the new "super-comfortable" cushioned seats, Robinson proceeded to give the magnificent edifice the once over. The shades of night were falling fast when a night-watchman awakened "Spike."
"Them seats are too blamed comfortable!" the erstwhile battler declared after his involuntary sleep. "Here I slept four hours—and I had an important 'act' on with Bull Montana."
The cushions of the Olympic Auditorium contain fifty-six springs each and are said to be the finest on the coast. They cost $65,000.

MEXICAN FADES BEFORE
GOB IN CLOSING ROUNDS
Colima Knocked Through Ropes in Seventh; Crowd of 18,000 Sees
Ten-Round Go at Maier Park

BY PAUL LOWRY
Stolid Eddie Huffman, unperturbed by Mexican artillery, upset the dope and literally clubbed his way to a decisive victory over Bert Colima in the main event of Jack Doyle's open-air show at Maier Ball Park last night.
A record crowd of 18,000 persons saw the bout.
Taking the play away from Colima early in the fight Huff-man's left jab came through with a surprising wallop in the seventh round and sent Colima spinning through the ropes onto the ledge above the press box.
Colima scrambled back into the ring and was met by a severe attack that wound up with the club-like shot to the Mexican's chin. Colima hit the floor with a crash and was down when the bell rang. Referee Harry Lee had totaled four.
In the words of Mike Collins,
veteran handler of fighters:
"Huffman is a better fighter
than he has been given credit for."
The sailor is not a straight hitter, but he has an opponent with terrific clubbing jolts to the head. He also crashed through Colima's guard with left hooks to the stomach.
Without detracting from Huff-
man's well-earned victory Colima was a disappointment. He came into the ring hog fat at 167 1/2 pounds, appearing to be about ten pounds overweight. At no time did he display any of the speed for which he is celebrated.
By way of contrast Huffman was in the pink. His muscles were taut and trim. There was no flab in evidence as on the Mexican. He was in there to win and he did not mince matters about it.

TOOTS' PUTS IN STRENUOUS
Afternoon at Dempsey's
Gymnasium
"Toots" Mondt, the pink-skinned Colorado cowboy, put in an afternoon of strenuous work at Jack Dempsey's gymnasium yesterday. "Toots" wrestles Alan Eustace in the main event of Kenneth Dix's show at Vernon tomorrow night and the way he did his stuff yesterday boded ill for his rival.
Fans who saw Mondt in his bouts here with Stranger Lewis and other grapplers last year will be flocking to the Vernon arena tomorrow night.
"Toots" crowds his matches with thrills, using a variety of holds and snoring and puffing
as he attempts to apply them.
He is sure to put on a pulsequickenng brawl with Eustace and inasmuch as the latter weighs close to 225 pounds and Mondt tips the scales at the same poundage fans are assured of some real thrills.
Richard Schikat, giant German, wrestles Herman Stroth
in the semi-main event. Schikat comes here with a fine reputation, having fopped some star-wart grapplers in the East.
Pat McGill takes on Hans Bauer in the other battle of the evening.
With the arrival of Mondt
two days ago tickets started going at a rapid rate. "Toots"
has a lot of friends in the movie colony and they will constitute much of the crowd that will be pulling for him against Eustace.

Newport Harbor NEW SWIM MARKS

Old Records to Fall as Stars Clash in Floor Gate Swim Next Sunday

may be set in the annual Silver Gate swim, which will be held on the southern city following discovery that the fastest swimmers in Southern California are to be added to the list of stars standing ready to be smashed.

Tom Blake of the city and the L.A.A.C. broke Charlie Brown's mark last year for the Silver Gate swim. This year the swim will be held on the southern city following discovery that the fastest swimmers in Southern California are to be added to the list of stars standing ready to be smashed.

Normal have entered from the Hollywood Athletic Club, Pasadena Athletic Club, and the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The swim will be held on the southern city following discovery that the fastest swimmers in Southern California are to be added to the list of stars standing ready to be smashed.

BENGALS SKID, BUT NOT SEALS

SEALS SOUND KNELL In the sixth the Seals sounded the knell of the "Home Guards" chances by running over five more markers and running out one Tiger twirler. Six hits, all of them right on the nose, produced the quietest of scores. Included in the six safeties were a home run, a triple, two doubles and two singles. What more could you want? Not only was there quantity, but quality and variety as well.

Eddie Mulligan opened the frame by singling to center. Warner fouled to Agnew, but Brower followed with his home run clout into the bleachers. Ellison doubled to center and then Bryan doubled to left that brought Ellison home. Rhyne tripled to center to score Pete and then Agnew doubled to left, Rhyne counting. Crockett and Agnew ended the rally in the sixth with a hit-and-run double to left brought in the other.

Rhyne's error, which put Oliver on second, an infield out and Warner's infield hit gave the Tigers one in the eighth, but the Seals came back with two in their half of the ninth. Crockett accounted for one run with his homer, while a walk to Mulligan and Warner's hit-and-run double to left brought in the other.

Murphy's double and Oliver's single gave the Tigers a run in the home half of the ninth, but like the parley they serve with steaks in restaurants, it didn't mean anything.

Oliver Mitchell will hurl for the Seals today, while either Johnson or Pilette will draw the assignment from Easick. Score:

No Action in Walker-Shade Case

POSTPONE MOVE ON ENCOUNTER

Will Act on Mickey's Scrap With Shade Soon

Tell Welterweight Champ to Show Up Tuesday

Must State Whether He Will Fight Opponent

NEW YORK, July 28.—Action on the much-discussed battle between Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, and Dave Shade, who is planned to take place at Ebbetts Field, Brooklyn, some time in September, was postponed at a meeting today by the New York State Athletic Commission.

The matter will be taken up next Tuesday.

Walker has been ordered to appear to state definitely whether he intends to box Shade at this time, also the difference between Humbert Fugazi, who is slated to promote the fight, and Paddy Mullins, manager of Harry Wills, over the prospects of the Italian hospital benefit fight recently staged at the Polo Grounds, will be settled.

Fugazi, who paid a visit to the commission, stated that he wanted to make the Walker-Shade fight the only event of the evening, eliminating all preliminary and tag stage the match between September 10 and 17.

A rather interesting incident in connection with the commission's meeting was a sixty-day suspension given to George Mulholland, the light-heavyweight, for "talking back" to the commissioners. He came to discuss differences between himself and his manager, John Reiser.

A number of other suspensions were made. Among these were Jack Peary, Bronx fighter, indefinitely, for failure to appear recently at a bout at the Finger Lakes Athletic Association at Ithaca.

Jack Burke, Pittsburgh light-heavyweight, has been suspended for sixty days by the New York Boxing Commission. The action of the commission resulted from Burke's assault on the referee after his recent bout with Jack Delaney had been stopped.

TOMMY GIBBONS RETIRES

"Only a Return Battle With Gene Tunney Could Coax Me Back Into Ring," Says Heavyweight

ST. PAUL, July 28.—Tommy Gibbons, who gained international prominence in the pugilistic world by staying fifteen rounds with Champion Jack Dempsey at Shelby two years ago, has retired from boxing, he announced here today.

"Only a return battle with Gene Tunney would coax me back into the ring," said the famous Tommy. "I would like to erase the only stain on my career. I still feel that I have not gone back to such an extent that I can not beat Tunney."

Tunney knocked out Gibbons at New York this spring, inflicting the only knockout or knockdown ever suffered during Tommy's career.

"I wanted to fight the fight of my life against Tunney," said Gibbons, "and convince New York that I was worthy of another bout with Dempsey. I thought I was in excellent shape, but there must have been a short-circuit some place."

"I wouldn't think of fighting until this fall, and then perhaps I won't fight then, either. I don't think my wife would wish to have me fight."

Friends of Gibbons believe his retirement is permanent.

Thomas Winner of Tuna Club Tackle Button

AVAILON (Catalina Island) July 28.—A seventy-nine and three-quarter-pound tuna, caught on a nine-thread line, won the Tuna Club light tackle button for George C. Thomas, III, son of George C. Thomas, Sr., of Beverly Hills. The battle between angler and fish continued for three hours and forty minutes. Young Thomas scored a week ago with the taking of a 12-pound tuna on the regulation twenty-four-thread line. Still in his early teens, the young sport angler has excelled his father in the latter's chosen sport. Mr. Thomas is a veteran Tuna Club member and one of the directors of the club, but the light-tackle button has his far ahead of him. However, the elder Thomas is promising the young man a chance to look to his laurels when the marlin begin to run.

President Jimmy Jump of the Tuna Club also scored with a light-tackle fish, bringing to raft an eighty-two-pound beauty on the slender line. Twenty-one tuna have been taken to date this season, and three broadbill swordfish, including the world record. Albacore are more plentiful in the channel than reported in thirteen years. All sport anglers are bringing in record catches of the long-fins.

GENARO'S CONTRACT IS ON WAY

Dick Donald to Utilize Billboards to Advertise La Barba Bout

High speed marked Dick Donald's activities yesterday in connection with his promotion of the Frankie Genaro-Fidel La Barba bout, August 29, at Ascot for the world's flyweight title. The promoter plans to utilize many billboards throughout the Southland as part of his advertising of the card and within a few days his paper will be blossoming to the world all the facts of the combat.

Genaro's contract is on the way here from New York, according to a wire from Phil Bernstein, Genaro's manager, and the little New York Italian says he is highly pleased at the opportunity to box before California fans. He also declares that all doubts as to the proper person to wear the crown recently belonging to the unfortunate Pancho Villa, will be definitely settled when he meets the Los Angeles school-boy inside the ropes at Ascot.

Donald completed his office arrangements yesterday. The main ticket office for the show will be in 33 Arcade Building, in the heart of the business district and the tickets will be placed on sale Saturday morning.

HUESTON WINS DIFFEN TROPHY AT CATALINA

AVAILON (Catalina Island) July 28.—Defeating runner-up E. Berninger in the finals for the Catalina Island amateur championship, Jimmy Hueston today annexed the Diffen Golfers' Trophy. Hueston made the final eighteen holes in 74, and was required to shoot the last nine in 33, which is par for the island course, and has been shot only once before. Nineteen entrants competed for the trophy with eight playing in the semi-finals.

Elusive disappeared desert-A. Payette, A. L. Laurance, Doc Crandall, Bob Richards, Jimmy Hueston and E. Berninger.

Murió el Embajador Americano en el Japon

TOKIO, 28 de julio.—Edgar Addison Bancroft, Embajador americano en el Japon murió hoy en su residencia, veraniga de Karuzawa, en el Japon Central. El embajador Bancroft estuvo enfermo durante el curso de las dos últimas semanas; su enfermedad fué diagnosticada como diabetes. Los mejores médicos del Japon, ayudados por consultas hechas por cable, a médicos americanos, estuvieron atendiendo incesantemente al distinguido enfermo, durante el curso de la enfermedad.

El Sr. George Pend, y su esposa, de Chicago, amigos del embajador, estuvieron a su lado a la hora de su muerte. Ellos mismos han tomado a su cargo hacer las gestiones necesarias para trasladar el cadáver del digno funcionario a Tokio, para que de allí sea transportado a los Estados Unidos.

El ilustre desaparecido deseara su cargo diplomático por Japon, en agosto de 1924, a raíz de la renuncia del Sr. Cyrus Woods.

la que ocurrió al promulgarse las nuevas leyes americanas de inmigración. Tomó posesión de su cargo en noviembre, en los precisos momentos en que reinaba gran excitación entre los hijos del Sol Naciente, en contra de los norteamericanos, debido a la promulgación de la mencionada ley.

En los primeros días de julio, cuando el embajador Bancroft acababa de trasladarse a su residencia de verano, empezó a sentir los primeros síntomas de la enfermedad que lo llevó al sepulcro.

Quedó organizada en México la Comisión de Caminos Carreteros.

MONTERREY (Méx.) 28 de julio.—Se ha dado un nuevo paso hacia la construcción de una línea principal de carreteras en México, por medio de la organización de la Comisión Nacional de Caminos, reconocida oficialmente por el gobierno federal. La Secretaría de Hacienda del gobierno de la Federación, está representada en esta organización por el Sr. Leda Salinas, ingeniero bien conocido, y la Secretaría de Comunicaciones tiene como representante al Sr. Andrés Ortiz, ingeniero también. Los intereses petroleros y las refinarias, tienen un representante en la persona del Lic. Pascual Luna y Parra. Todos los Estados de la República y las ciudades principales, tienen un representante en el seno de la Comisión.

Uno de los propósitos de la Comisión Nacional de Caminos es hacer un estudio de las necesidades de construir determinadas carreteras en el país, para recomendar al gobierno del centro que lleva a efecto la construcción de las que considere la Comisión que redundarán en beneficio inmediato del desarrollo del comercio y de la industria y que presenten especial oportunidad para el desenvolvimiento de la agricultura. La misma Junta se encargará de vigilar las inversiones de fondos, procedentes del nuevo impuesto sobre gasolina, creado especialmente para la construcción de caminos carreteros. Ha quedado decidido, de manera definitiva, que la primera línea principal de caminos será la que se construya de la ciudad de México a un punto del Rio Grande, bien sea a Laredo o Brownsville.

Aumenta la Popularidad de los Conciertos de Hollywood Bowl

Los primeros doce conciertos que han tenido lugar en el sitio conocido por "Hollywood Bowl", han ocurrido en auditorio que ha superado en 30,000 personas al total de concurrentes habidos en la temporada del año pasado. El número total de personas que han formado el auditorio en esta temporada, ha sido de 121,000 y no ha habido una sola audición donde haya menos de 10,000 concurrentes.

El sábado próximo se espera que haya un auditorio mas numeroso aun, por ser el último concierto dirigido por el Sr. Fritz Reiner, de la Orquesta Sinfónica de Cincinnati. El número sobrepasante, en el concierto de mañana, será la "Obertura 1812", de Tchaikowsky, ejecutada en forma novedosa, con veinticuatro instrumentos de metal colocados en las colinas que rodean el lugar de los conciertos, desde donde ejecutarán los otros músicos, reforzando con este contingente la orquesta de 300 músicos.

Marguerite Melville Lenzewski, pianista, tocará el concierto en Sol menor de Saint-Saens y el número de ballet "Petroushka", de Igor Stravinsky, que repetirá a solicitud especial del público.

AUSTRALIANS WILL TOUR UNITED STATES

The cricket enthusiasts of this country may enjoy a treat next spring as arrangements are under way to have the Australian experts who are to tour England next summer travel by way of the United States. To carry out the idea, the Australians would come by way of New Zealand and reach San Francisco playing games in prominent centers during March and April.

Since this time yesterday nearly 2,000* men have changed to Chesterfield

Attractive Foreign Government Credits

The disparity in yields between good Foreign Government Bonds and domestic issues of similar merit is at this time very unusual. Foreign Government Bonds, of the better grade, are considered to be selling out of line and at the present market prices we consider the following attractive investments:

	Price	Yield
Kingdom of Norway 5 1/2% of 1965	94 1/2	6 7/8
Mortgage Bank of Chile 5 1/2% of 1967 (Guaranteed by Republic of Chile)	97 1/2	6 7/8
City of Cologne 5 1/2% of 1960	87 1/2	7 1/8
Great Consolidated Electric Power Co. (Japan) 6 1/2% of 1960	88	7 7/8

BOND QUOTATIONS

Prices Work Lower
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, July 22.—Bond prices worked into lower ground today although trading was marked by spirited rallies in a variety of individual railroad issues. Growing indications that long-term credit accommodations will command higher rates dampened speculative ardor in the main body of listed bonds, while the 2,000,000 share day in the stock market tended to divert attention from trading.

An enormous demand for "Katy" adjustment area, which proved responsive to improvement in the company's earnings and reports that preferred would be increased in the fall, was the most conspicuous feature of the day's dealings. On a turnover of almost 1,500,000 the bonds scored a gain of 13-1/2 points. Price income and adjustment area while not so active, spurred up one to four points and retained most of their gains at the close. Earnings of these issues coincided with a rise in the road's common stock to a new high level.

Although essentially a "rail market," the bond list nevertheless presents a conflict of price movements. Speculative possibilities were not overlooked, but the tendency of banks to reduce investment holdings was still evident. As a result, Canadian Pacific, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific and other high-grade issues drifted lower in contrast to the upward movement of the southwestern and Seaboard, Norfolk and Western, Great Northern and Chesapeake and Ohio lines.

The city of Tokyo today was added to the list of prospective foreign borrowers in this market, but bankers indicated that negotiations might not come to a head for some time.

Public offering will be made tomorrow of $30,000,000 Kingdom of Denmark 30 year 5 1/2-3 per cent external gold bonds, Many Bond Holders Suffer Loss by Delinquency in Exercising Conversion Privilege—General Railway Signal Calls 6 1/2 Percent for Redemption.

[Copyright, 1925, New York Evening Post, Inc.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—The redemption of convertible bonds by industrial and public-utility companies has been rather marked in the course of the current year and, notwithstanding the widespread publicity which has attended the announcement of such intentions, such operations have found some holders delinquent.

Almost without exception the failure to take advantage of the conversion privilege has been costly, inasmuch as the right of conversion has expired with the date set for redemption, and they have been forced, therefore, to take the call price when they might just as well have realized a much larger profit, either by selling their bonds at the market or converting into the stock.

Early this week another company, the General Railway Signal Company, informed the holders of its 4 1/2 per cent convertible issue, now outstanding, that bonds had been called for redemption on October 1, next, at 110. The notice stipulated that interest payments will cease on that date and that the conversion privilege will expire on that date.

Evidently the management has some plan in mind for a complete revision of the company's capital structure. The investor who bought these bonds, either at the time of issue or as recently as the early spring of this year, with an eye to the attractive possibilities contained in the conversion privileges, has been well rewarded for his keen foresight.

The sinking-fund provision and its relation to common-stock dividends was probably the basic reason for the calling of the issue, inasmuch as it sets forth that no extra dividends can be paid on the common unless $2 were appropriated for the sinking fund for each $1 paid in extras.

It is very evident that the holder of the bonds is in a predicament. First, he may dispose of his holdings in the open market and realize the difference between the prevailing price and the redemption figure of 110 and interest to which the bonds are entitled. Second, he may exercise his conversion option and take ten shares of the common stock, selling close to $200 a share, for each $100 face amount of the bonds held. There is absolutely no reason for delay in taking any action along either of these lines—certainly not from an investment standpoint. Delay in such instances is dangerous, inasmuch as it involves the possibility of forgetfulness until it is too late.

Million Mark Hit in Weekly Rail Loadings

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Loading of revenue freight for the week ended on the 18th inst. totaled 1,010,970 cars, according to reports filed today by the railroads with the Interstate Commerce Commission. This was the first time this year that the 1,000,000 mark has been reached, having been reported in the loading of all commodities except live stock, coal and ore. The greatest increase, compared with the preceding week, was in the loading of coal, which increased more than 10,000 cars, although miscellaneous freight, forest products and grain and grain products showed substantial gains.

STEEL CORPORATION TO PAY USUAL EXTRA

NEW YORK, July 28.—Directors of the United States Steel Corporation today declared the usual extra dividend of 60 cents a share on the common stock. The dividend is payable on or about August 1, 1925. The corporation's earnings for the first three months of 1925, and for the corresponding period of the preceding year, were $11,811,019 and $11,811,019, respectively. The corporation's earnings for the first three months of 1925, and for the corresponding period of the preceding year, were $11,811,019 and $11,811,019, respectively.

SHARP CUT MADE IN WOMEN'S WOOLENS

NEW YORK, July 28.—The lowest prices in many years were quoted on women's wear fabrics today by the American Woolen Company, in opening its lines for the spring of 1925. The reduction in prices was made in all lines of women's wear fabrics, including dress goods, suitings, and sportswear. The company's prices were the lowest in many years, and the reduction was made in all lines of women's wear fabrics, including dress goods, suitings, and sportswear.

HAIR TURNING GRAY?

"Jonaco" Restores Many to Youthful Color Without Dyes or Tonics

Are you prematurely gray? No woman likes to look older than she is. All have an aversion to hair dyes. Besides being objectionable, dyes have to be resorted to weekly. A dye never comes close enough to the natural effect to escape detection.

Think what it would mean to regain your youthful appearance, with your hair actually growing from the roots in its natural color. This has been accomplished for many by Wilshire's "Jonaco". You can easily convince yourself whether or not it will do the same for you.

BACKED BY GAYLORD WILSHIRE
The "Jonaco" carries the personal backing and endorsement of Gaylord Wilshire, internationally famous as the originator of the Wilshire District. No confidence in Mr. Wilshire in the "Jonaco" that he says:

MONEY BACK ON "JONACO" FAILURE TO RESTORE GRAY HAIR
To any person with prematurely gray hair who will purchase an "Jonaco" and, after a thorough trial, finds that it does not restore the hair to its natural color, the purchase price will cheerfully be refunded.

The "Jonaco" has also been proved to be wonderfully successful in relieving sickness and pain. Treatments are very easy to take. No drugs, chemicals, baths, cabinets, diet, massage, vibrators, sweating, exercise, or other unpleasant treatment. Wear your ordinary clothes. Sit in a comfortable chair. Read your newspaper for ten minutes. That's all.

If you want to know the meaning of real rejuvenation—rejuvenation in appearance, in health, and in natural functions—investigate the "Jonaco" today. Don't be senile.

For a limited time we are making this liberal offer: To anyone who will bring a clipping of this advertisement to our office we will give one treatment of the "Jonaco" free of charge. Office hours from 9 to 6. Explanatory booklet mailed on request.

Asserted Vice Den Found Dark by Officers

Sinister Aim Seen Behind Petition of Women

The police department yesterday got off a shot in the spasm of skirmish over vice conditions which has been disturbing the occupants of the City Hall for the past week, and received a lousy cheer from the Board of Police Commissioners.

The board accepted with acclamation a communication from Acting Chief Murray stating that there has been no gambling at 1361 East Seventh street, a place where Mrs. Allie Simmons representing the Women's Christian Temperance Union, declared to the Council that Farmer Page was holding open house.

Acting Chief Murray inclosed a report from Capt. L. L. McCleary, commanding the Newton Street Station, stating that his officers, on several occasions, had found the asserted dive dark, and one from Inspector James E. Davis, commanding the Vice Division, stating that Mrs. Simmons had not reported these facts to his office, and that the work his division has been doing.

On motion of Commissioner Fox, the board adopted resolutions demanding the police department on its splendid work, and urging that its efforts be continued.

Inspector Davis declared that the charges they should have consulted the Police Commission, I believe someone with a motive is behind this action. We have full faith because we are a prosperous community, where the jails are empty the city is dead.

Members of the board expressed the feeling that Mrs. Simmons should have made her report to them in place of the Council.

Inspector Davis declared that his division was doing its utmost, with fifty-six men and $750 a month, to suppress vice in the city. He stated that there was no complaint on

LOVE'S MESSENGER THWARTED

Tardy Carrier Pigeon, Bearing Note to Sweetheart of New Mexico Rancher, Wings Way Eastward With Greeting When Released from Hotel Room

When Frederick Carter, young New Mexico rancher, came to Los Angeles a few days ago, he promised a young lady in his home town that he would communicate with her by carrier pigeon. His intentions were excellent, but there was a slip-up somewhere along the line, for the girl did not receive the message as Frederick had planned.

Young Carter registered at the Russell Hotel and when the chambermaid entered his room after he had checked out yesterday morning she was surprised to find a carrier pigeon perched calmly on the foot of the bed. The bird was captured and was found to have a tiny capsule attached to its leg. Within was a message reading:

"Dearest Louise, next time I come to Los Angeles I hope you will be with me and that we will be on our honeymoon. With love, Fred."

Why the bird had been left behind nobody knows. Either Frederick forgot about it, or the pigeon, with the perversity sometimes noticed in dumb creatures, hid under the bed. The hotel attendant after feeding the small messenger, took it to the front door and let it go, but apparently confused by the unusual sights and sounds of city street, the bird quickly returned to the lobby. Then it was taken to the roof of the building and tossed into the air, and when last seen the pigeon was a rapidly disappearing speck in that part of the emerald sky toward New Mexico.

NEWS OF THE CAFES

A galaxy of motion-picture celebrities are to appear in person tonight at the Greenwich Village Cafe in the Christie Hotel, Hollywood. It is more or less Universal Studio night, with Jack Hoxie, his beautiful leading lady, Miss Margaret Quimby, and director, Al Rossell, celebrating the completion of "The Western Whirlwind."

A bunch of cowboys will enter the cafe audience some time during the evening and stage a thrilling Wild West demonstration. The film stars will also act as judges of the usual Wednesday evening dancing contest, a nonstop smokador contest, a schabund of beautiful mahogany finish and of latest design to be awarded the best dancer, through the courtesy of the Hollywood branch of Smith Furniture Company.

Lucille May, a dancing girl, is making everyone forget the Charleston and other steps with her intricate steps and wiggly wiggles. Rod Loring's Orchestra continues to please diners and dancers. According to Jack Hoxie, those who attend the Greenwich Village Cafe tonight are in for a surprise as well as some real cowboy entertainment.

Ruth Roland, well-known film star, will be the guest of honor and award the prize for the dancing contest at Bradstreet's popular Montmartre Cafe this evening when Bohemian night will be celebrated. Wedgewood Howell, western representative for the Actors' Equity Association, will act as master of ceremonies and present another of his impromptu programs in which a number of well-known stars of stage and screen will participate. A special musical program will be given by Vince Rose and the Montmartre Orchestra in which a number of solos by members of the orchestra will be featured, including song numbers by Bobby Burns.

The motion-picture people of Hollywood are growing more and more to regard Wednesday evening as motion-picture night and many observations have been made by prominent film folk.

LOVE'S MESSENGER THWARTED

Tardy Carrier Pigeon, Bearing Note to Sweetheart of New Mexico Rancher, Wings Way Eastward With Greeting When Released from Hotel Room

When Frederick Carter, young New Mexico rancher, came to Los Angeles a few days ago, he promised a young lady in his home town that he would communicate with her by carrier pigeon. His intentions were excellent, but there was a slip-up somewhere along the line, for the girl did not receive the message as Frederick had planned.

Young Carter registered at the Russell Hotel and when the chambermaid entered his room after he had checked out yesterday morning she was surprised to find a carrier pigeon perched calmly on the foot of the bed. The bird was captured and was found to have a tiny capsule attached to its leg. Within was a message reading:

"Dearest Louise, next time I come to Los Angeles I hope you will be with me and that we will be on our honeymoon. With love, Fred."

Why the bird had been left behind nobody knows. Either Frederick forgot about it, or the pigeon, with the perversity sometimes noticed in dumb creatures, hid under the bed. The hotel attendant after feeding the small messenger, took it to the front door and let it go, but apparently confused by the unusual sights and sounds of city street, the bird quickly returned to the lobby. Then it was taken to the roof of the building and tossed into the air, and when last seen the pigeon was a rapidly disappearing speck in that part of the emerald sky toward New Mexico.

TIME TO DUCK
A Missouri bullfrog swallowed a young duck and now newspaper readers are invited to swallow the story.

THE GOAT MARKET
Down in Texas a man recently sold his Angora for $1000. The man who got his goat surely paid some price.

ON THE JUMP
Avisitors are said to be using cricket oil on some of the English planes. Maybe it helps them in hopping off.

THE PATH OF SAFETY
The Danes are buying American safety razors and paying five times as much for them as they pay for a German offering. After all, the Danes believe in safety first.

SHINING UP
Uncle Sam is now exporting more than $100,000 worth of shoe polish every month to different countries. This is one way to shine up the world. Every little helps.

THE OLD LOVE
Just forty years from the day originally set for their nuptials a Massachusetts couple are married. Both had taken other partners in the meantime, but with freedom the glamour of the ancient romance returned. Thus proving that first love is best—sometimes.

BLACK DIAMONDS
One Illinois mine has been getting out coal at the rate of approximately 1000 tons an hour. This is a world's record and if this plant could be kept running at full speed for twenty-four hours a day it would produce a coal strike in the eastern field would lose much of their sting.

HANGING OVER
The newest cooking invention is an oven designed to hang over any kind of a fire, indoors or outdoors. It may prove to be like Daniel Webster's scythe, which didn't hang right. After Daniel had complained several times his father told him to hang it any way he liked. Daniel hung it on the fence.

THE BIG TREES
The city of St. Louis wants to insure the lives of a couple of massive elm trees in the business district for $25,000 each. This shows that full-grown trees have great value for both sentimental and practical reasons. Only God can make a tree and it takes more than six days, at that. Try and put an auditor on the valuation of the California big trees.

KEEPING UP THE GAIT
In spite of reductions and cuts in Federal taxes amounting to more than $10,000,000, the internal revenue collections for the fiscal year in the Los Angeles district exceed $55,000,000, a handsome figure above last year's total. This is practically the only district in the United States of which this can be said, thus proving that there has been no halting of our progress and prosperity.

PRACTICE THERAPY
Auxiliary societies are being established in Japan. The idea is that people are being grouped together under an agreement to dispense with many of life's luxuries and worry along with the mere necessities. The members may specify their inhibitions and file their lists with the secretary if they wish but the broad plan of cutting out the nonessentials under a general understanding is spreading over the empire. We may have a few Coolidge economy leagues in this country the first thing we know.

THE STORM CENTER
Newspaper men all had an amiable feeling for William Jennings Bryan. With the possible exception of Theodore Roosevelt, he was the most prolific source of newspaper copy the generation has known. He was in the heart of most of the country's political embroilments. There was always a fight in the Bryan sector. The war was always of words, but words make copy. As an earnest and honest battler he was at the forefront in nearly every foreign dispute the Americans have indulged in during the last three decades. He was always in the harness and he may be said to have died in it.

BRAIN VERSUS BRAIN
Father Delon, a missionary visiting Los Angeles, tells the story. A polar bear and an Eskimo looked at each other, both wanting meat. The bear advanced and the Eskimo retreated homeward, losing ground. But before the bear overtook him the Eskimo threw off his fur coat, which Brain stopped to investigate, while the Eskimo sprinted off. Hearing the bear again at his heels the Eskimo threw off other things and finally reached his igloo, grabbed up his gun and laid a month's supply of meat. A book could be written round this simple story, for it shows how a physical weakness with a big brain won the World War against brain.

CLEARING FOR ACTION

The President has given public notice that there will be no Executive interference with the fullest and most rigid enforcement of the Volstead Act. He has given to Gen. L. C. Andrews, assistant Secretary of the Treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement, full authority to select his own staff, unhampered by patronage-seeking politicians; and will hold him responsible for the results obtained.

According to the President, the Volstead Act is a Federal law, an active living law, not a dead letter; and it is the duty of the Federal government to pursue violators with the same rigor that is maintained in hunting down and punishing violators of other Federal statutes.

No fair-minded person can honestly take issue with the President on his position. Public opinion may be divided on the question of prohibition as a policy; but honest public opinion cannot be divided on the enforcement of any law pronounced constitutional by the Federal Supreme Court.

Public opinion is divided on the policy of a protective tariff. But we do not find those who believe in free trade offering both moral and material support to smugglers. Public opinion is divided on our present restrictive immigration policy; but that is no reason for aiding aliens to violate the immigration laws. Public opinion is divided in California on the wisdom of the law which prohibits reading selections from the Bible in the public schools of the State; but this division of public opinion is not taken by instructors as a pretext to read surreptitiously passages from the scripture in the classroom.

The list of policies on which minorities are not in agreement with existing laws could be continued almost indefinitely. These minorities possess the right and privilege to conduct a campaign of education with the purpose of securing the repeal or amendment of the law; but they possess neither the moral nor the legal right or privilege to violate the law.

The Volstead Act is not the only statute frequently violated. The same applies to State, Federal and municipal laws against deeds of violence, against getting money or its equivalent through trick and device, against seduction and felonious assault; and to these may be added violations of the traffic laws. But what moral person will advocate the repeal of these laws because they are frequently violated?

Neither the Federal Constitution nor the State constitutions give to the executive department of governments the privilege to discriminate between laws, the right to ignore one while they enforce others.

It is perhaps true that the enforcement of the Volstead Act is unpopular in a few sections of the country, that public sentiment in some communities is against it. But this offers no justification for condoning violations. To permit sections of a few States to set themselves up in defiance of the law is to permit the part to become greater than the whole. The will of the majority, as expressed by their representatives in Congress and in the State Legislatures, is the supreme will of the nation. When this ceases to be true our will cease to be a representative republic.

For four or five years our government has been held up to ridicule in other countries by reason of the feeble enforcement of the Volstead Act. We are pictured as a nation of lawbreakers, and our form of government is held to be imperfect because of the failure of executive departments to enforce existing laws.

President Coolidge is not minded to temporize with violators of any Federal statute, and he will not permit patronage-seeking politicians to weaken the efficiency of any Federal department. That some prohibition enforcement officials have been false to their trust is no argument against Federal enforcement. The President demands that the grafters be weeded out, that more strict attention be paid to the selection of the Federal enforcement agents, that rum runners shall receive no leniency and that those who make and circulate bad whisky shall be pursued with the same diligence as those who make and circulate bad money.

The President has done what the people had the right to expect he would do; and it now remains for the respecters of the law and the Constitution to give the support he in turn has the right to expect. Public opinion can make violations of the Volstead Act, as far as it relates to the manufacture of alcoholic liquors, unprofitable. It will cease when there ceases to be any considerable market for these contraband and often deadly poisonous wares. The people have faith in the President. Let them give him cause, in turn, to have faith in the people.

RED RULE IN CHINA
Ominous is the news from Shanghai that China is listening to the strenuous voice of Soviet Russia, which warns her against the acceptance of the American program of understanding in accordance with the Washington conference. This warning is backed by the specious argument that if China should accept the proposals of the Americans, British and Japanese she is bound to be enslaved for years and that the hypocrisy of the powers will be in evidence as soon as her hands are tied and the present agitation has died down. Of course, in street argot, this is all "hokum."

It is a game played by Russia to strengthen her own hold upon China, which she not only counsels, but in a large measure rules. Tired of internecine strife, the distraught orientals, led by the fabby theorists of the Peking colleges, are willing to turn anywhere for peace. Soviet propagandists have been assuring them that their safety depends upon their getting under the wing of Russia. They assure them that dismemberment is certain if they hearken to the powers, whose intentions, they say, are selfishly evil, as they have but one feeling for China and that is to exploit her.

This argument has made a deep impression on the susceptible Chinese mind. Indeed, the insidious persuasions of the Reds have been so strong in Mongolia that that province recently has joined the Union of Soviet Republics, destined, in Red opinion, to include all nations. There are many half-baked "intellectuals" in Peking and other Chinese cities who are working with Russian agitators and with Russian rubles to swing all China into the soviet line. If this should be done American and British influence in that country would cease, along with the splendid work of the missionaries, for the Bolsheviks would apply to the Chinese the miserable misrule they have applied to their own deluded people.

But Moscow is going to have uphill work in gaining entire control of China. Its chief antagonist in this struggle will be Japan, which abhors Bolshevism and is backing the Manchurian war lord, Chang Tso-Lin, with men and yen and will continue to back him to the limit. A brush already has taken place between the soviet army in Mongolia and the troops of Chang. On the advice of M. Karakhan, soviet ambassador to Peking, Moscow sent troops to take possession of the Chinese Eastern Railroad, and Chang ordered his soldiers to oust them, which they did.

This doubtless will lead to other petty clashes, but Russia will avoid open war as long as possible, as she wishes to gain time for the poisoning of the Chinese mind by Bolshevik propaganda and she knows that the Chinese mind works slowly. Already there are ten Bolshevik newspapers published in Shanghai and many in other Chinese cities, and Russia is spending millions of rubles in putting forth other literature and in making strong appeals to oriental cupidity. Agitators are hired by the hundred to go forth and preach sovietism. All this is having its effect, and it is feared that the effect is cumulative.

Misgivings expressed by Lloyd George and other discerning observers as to a Red-Yellow peril that ultimately will confront the world and be very destructive of its peace would appear to be well grounded, particularly if Moscow can exert sufficient influence upon Peking to cause it to reject the American treaty program.

COAL STRIKE MENACE
From his quiet retreat at Swampscott President Coolidge is carefully watching each factor of the situation which may eventually in the threatened coal strike. If this strike is not averted, it may prove one of the greatest ever known in this country. So unfavorable has been the news from Atlantic City, where the anthracite union heads have been in conference with the operators for some time, and so persistent has been the report that the mine workers will be called out early in September, that government experts have been detailed to study the situation at close range.

John Hays Hammond, who acted as chairman of the Coal Commission in 1923, is conferring with the President in regard to all phases of the anthracite industrial problem. Mr. Hammond is of the opinion that no if there should be a strike it will be of short duration, and it is sincerely to be hoped that he is right; but that is the kind of talk one heard when the two other big coal strikes were threatened. Afterward the stubbornness of the miners kept the mines shut down for protracted periods, and the poor of New York and other cities were shivering as the result of the fuel shortage. People lost faith in the prophets and patrons of the anthracite mines who are menaced by a coal strike. President John L. Lewis is holding over the heads of the bituminous mining companies ugly threats of a general strike because of the closing of many of the poisoned mines. Mr. Lewis charges that these mines are being shut down here and there in order that the miners may be forced to go into nonunion fields, the owners say, so it is asserted, thus to break the grip of the unions. On the other hand, the owners say that they are closing the mines because of overproduction. They assert that the bituminous coal industry is carrying an excess burden of one-third too many mines and one-third too many men and that this has greatly reduced their profits.

The anthracite miners contend that their wages are lower than those of the unionized bituminous coal operatives, and this seems to be their chief cause of grievance. But their employers say this condition is counterbalanced by the fact that the anthracite workers are given a greater number of days' employment each year and, therefore,

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Bill Jones is an attorney, so he dares not advertise. To say that he is within all the cases that he tries. If he put in the paper any regular kind of ad. That gives the names and pictures of all clients he has had. His brothers in the business would declare he'd got too law. An' do their best to bar him from the practice of the law.

So Bill's pecked up his Blackstone and is hunting through the land for a case that'll save him and where common sense is lacking. Like the one they staged at Dayton—and he says he has high hopes Of being named "of counsel" for some future Mr. Scopee. Which side he's on don't matter; he'll be for him or agin'. He don't care about the verdict; all he wants is to be in.

Bill Jones is all for ethics; he would never make a move. That the lights of his profession wouldn't heartily approve. But the biggest in the business turned the trick in Tennessee. And their ethics ain't in question, and the advertiser's free. And if he can be "of counsel," never mind upon which side. When he comes back to the village folks'll know him far and wide.

Law's a pretty tough profession if a fellow is so dumb. As to set and wait for clients that don't hardly ever come. But if he gets out and does things where the limelight's shinin' bright. People says with admiration, "That young fellow is all right." And he's soon the leadin' lawyer of the little old home town. Without bustin' of an ethic the profession has laid down!

Viewed in the light of the reports from Washington and other quarters, there is no justification for a strike in either branch of the coal industry and, indeed, when one considers the contentions made by both the anthracite and bituminous mine workers, this would seem to be the case. Remembering their own sufferings and those of the public during previous strikes, many of the coal miners doubtless would be willing to dismiss all thoughts of a new strike; but the union leaders, to whom the rank and file relegate their freedom of choice, delight in such demonstrations of their power. It gives them an opportunity to do a lot of talking, and while they talk their pay goes on.

President Coolidge has had experience in strikes. He knows the psychology of the striker and just how much bluff and pretense he may expect from him. The result way in which he put down a very menacing and altogether unwarrantable one in Boston while he was Governor of Massachusetts indicates what he would do if it came to a matter of Federal intervention. But what probably will happen, in the event of an emergency, will be that he, like Roosevelt in a similar case, will proceed to adjust whatever difficulties may arise. And the part he will play in bridging the crisis will add to his reputation as a firm and fair-minded Executive.

Southern California is fortunate in that it would be affected only indirectly by such a strike. There will be no freezing, no hardships to be endured here from lack of coal for fuel. That is one of the multitudinous blessings a kindly nature has bestowed on us.

LETTERS TO

The Times

Mocker Case Closed

LOS ANGELES, July 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Permit me to applaud the recent condemnation of the pestiferous mocking bird, which has appeared in your columns. I have on all sides that sleep is almost impossible in Hollywood. For my own part I regard this pest as a public danger, as I know how hard it is to operate at 8 a.m. after several miserable nights due to this useful bird without a note of music in its composition.

LOS ANGELES, July 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] On the 20th inst. some one had a grouse on the way he named our mocking birds. For the love of Pete, how can anybody find fault with the mocking birds I have spent thirteen years and all sides that they have never disturbed me at 3 o'clock in the morning or at any other hour. Really I enjoy hearing them. I get a thrill. At the same time there is one sitting on a telephone pole in front of my place and she is telling the world her story, not other birds how to run their business.

A. J. ROLAYAT

LOS ANGELES, July 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Greatly to my surprise I read your letter that did not seem to favor Mr. Mocker Bird. It was strange, indeed.

I have several times spoken to people on the subject and mentioned how disturbing they were to me as I was nervous and I seemed to call down the high displeasure of my hearers. Therefore, I felt I was alone in my attitude to said Mr. Mocker Bird.

I am most thankful to know that others are of my opinion, and if the case who loudly denounce others for disliking mocking birds were disturbed night after night and then had to put in eight hours of hard manual labor every day they would most likely change their views.

MRS. WALTER BABCOCK

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I read with surprise the objections of Mrs. Rutherford to the mocking bird and I wonder if she, too, objects to the song and music when sung or played by an artist and the music of the little canaries over K.H.J. I sincerely pity anyone who has such a narrow view of life. It is not only the song and music when sung or played by an artist and the music of the little canaries over K.H.J. I sincerely pity anyone who has such a narrow view of life.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

One of the beautifully appointed weddings of yesterday was that of Miss Fernie Gardner, charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gardner of De Longpre avenue, and Russell Hurlbut, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbut of Glendale, the ceremony taking place at 1 o'clock in the picturesque Little Church of the Angels, Garvanza Way, Rev. Clay Angelo officiating. The church which needs but little decorations to make its charming, was a bower of summer flowers and ferns with myriad tell white candles, shedding a soft glow over the scene, the sunlight through the colored glass windows forming a perfect setting for the bridal party at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was exquisite in her frock of white chiffon, made bouffant over puffed willow tulle, with trimmings of delicate hand-made ruffles and silver ribbons. Her hat was of white horsehair with pale pink maline ribbon trimming, pink rosettes and silver ribbons and she carried an armful of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Little Marilyn Cooper in a dainty frock of peach-colored crepe de chine with white hat, was the flower girl and carried a French basket of rose petals.

Harold Hurlbut served as best man, and following the ceremony there was an informal reception at the church after which Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut left in their machine for an extended motor trip north. After their return they will make their home here.

Mrs. Richard O'Neil, formerly Miss June Hurlbut, was the matron of honor wearing a frock of blue chiffon voile over blue and gold tulle, a neapolitan hat with blonde lace and she carried an armful of rose-colored roses and lilies of the valley.

At Beach Club. Mrs. George H. Barrow and Mrs. T. P. Gardner are entertaining at the Surf and Sand Club, Hermosa Beach, the affair being a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. H. B. Brooks of Sioux City, Iowa, who is enjoying a delightful sojourn in Southern California this summer.

Visiting Here. The many friends of Dr. Henry Lewis Casey of Kentucky, and now of Panama, will be glad to know he is back again in the States, and is visiting his son, Dr. Jack

SORORITY CHAPTER ENTERTAINS

One of University Hostesses at Tea

Miss Ruth Taylor

ONE of the attractive affairs of the day will be the Garden Tea with which Delta Gamma sorority, Alpha Sigma chapter at the University of California, Southern Branch, is entertaining this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward A. Dickson in Lucerne Boulevard. One of the hostesses of the afternoon will be in the receiving line Miss Ruth Taylor, charming young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry L. Taylor of Hollywood Boulevard.

Casey, at his home in Kentucky Park, near Los Angeles. Dr. Casey has been enjoying several days' visit in Los Angeles, where he is the house guest at the home of Mrs. Sally Clarkson Clark of Sunset and Crescent Heights Boulevards, Hollywood.

At Women's Athletic Club. One of the most delightful affairs given recently at the Women's Athletic Club was the buffet supper Sunday evening which was followed by a musicale. Mrs. Gertrude Ross was hostess of the evening and was assisted by Mrs. George Meyer, Mrs. Oscar A. Trippe, Mrs. Gordon Wallace Wattles, Mrs. Chester Hoag, Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Douglas, Mrs. Alice Van der Horst, Mrs. Helen Behrmer, Mrs. Lemuel J. Selby, Mrs. Nora Puterbaugh, Mrs. William E. Mahan, Mrs. Antoinette Sabel, Mrs. Wright Hoag and Mrs. Arthur Bent. The musicale was given by Miss Marjorie Dodge and Slide Manion, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ross. These buffet suppers and evening musicales are among the many delightful affairs of the summer at the Women's Athletic Club and are attended by members who entertain charmingly at supper parties.

For Easterners. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Steinway of New York City and Dr. Casebeer, brother of Mrs. Steinway, who have been sojourning in Southern California for several weeks, have been the incentive for many delightfully planned affairs. Friday evening they were honor guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Gelsamer at a dinner party and box party afterwards at the Hollywood Bowl concert Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Steinway and Dr. Casebeer were honor guests at a dinner party with which George Birkel entertained at his home on Figueroa street at twenty-third. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Gelsamer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sommers, Mrs. Pauline Fredholm, Mrs. Pauline Davison and Miss Dorothy Janis Fredholm. Following the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Gelsamer were hosts at a large at the Pilgrimage Theater, motoring their guests out to see the Pilgrimage Play.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gelsamer entertained with a dinner party for twenty-two guests. Mr. and Mrs. Steinway and Dr. Casebeer left yesterday for an extended pleasure trip to Alaska.

Sorority Affairs. Of much interest in college circles is the rush which is being formally introduced this afternoon by a garden tea to be given by Delta Gamma sorority, Alpha Sigma chapter of University of

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Avoid Lye

Your plumber will tell you to avoid lye to clear clogged drains. Boiling water and an ashing soda are much more effective. As lye is apt to combine with the grease in a hard plug, while soda will cut right through the grease. Once a week put two or three tablespoonfuls of soda in the drain. This will keep the drain and pipes beautifully clear and they are not likely to clog.

A Help in Time of Need

If a hot water bottle is needed and one is not at hand a plain glass bottle will fill the bill. Warm the bottle first and then pour in the boiling water. Cork tightly and wrap in flannel or the warm material on hand. This suggestion sometimes comes in handy when on a picnic and some one is taken ill suddenly.

Do It Thoroughly

When you see a flock in the window of a very exclusive shop and you feel certain you can copy it, do it. It is better to have a small detail out, even going so far as to count the exact number of buttons used as trimmings. These seemingly small details are usually the things that really make the difference when you copy, copy it well.

Better Baking

The inside of the oven is so often neglected. It should be scrubbed out occasionally and all burners scraped out with an old knife.

Soak It First

If you will soak the rice for pudding in cold milk for about a half-hour before cooking, the milk will not be wasted by so much cooking away, as the rice will be done much more quickly.

Good, Too

Bake pastry the outside of the muffin tins and use in place of the more expensive patte shells or creamed chicken or creamed fish.

For the Novice

It is said that the person attempting paperhanging for the first time will do better by applying the paste to the wall instead of the paper. It will be easier to match the pattern and the paper is less likely to tear.

Dumping of Sand

on Land Results in Redress Plea

The gritty problem of what to do for a man who receives a horizontal accretion of soil on his property was presented to the City Council yesterday, which failed to attain its solution.

Joseph Meamer declared that while the north outfall sewer was under construction a quantity of sand was dumped by the city upon four acres of land belonging to him near the Baldwin Hills, and that the city pay that amount, as the removal of the sand would cost approximately $10,000.

"We're paying him damages, not buying his land," protested Councilman Allan and Hall. "This way he'll get his land and money."

The question was referred again to the Finance Committee.

CHEF WYMAN'S Suggestions for TOMORROW'S MENU

Breakfast

Sliced Toasted Eggs Creamed Eggs Coffee

Lunch

Curry of Shrimps, Bombay Hot Biscuits Neapolitan Slices Iced Tea

Dinner

Creamed Carrots Olives Leg of Lamb with Mint Stuffed Pimientos Hearts of Lettuce, Louis Fresh Plum Pie

Milk

Place in a sauce pan three tablespoonfuls of olive oil, half of a clove of garlic, one thinly sliced onion, one peeled, cored and thinly sliced tart apple. Stir and cook until the onion and apple are soft and tender. Add two cups of milk and simmer slowly for twenty minutes, a seasoning of salt and cayenne pepper and two cups of peeled and cooked shrimps; heat and serve in a border of cooked rice.

NEAPOLITAN SLICES

Sift two cups of sifted flour with two thirds of a cup of sifted powdered sugar, make a well in the center and add two eggs, two-thirds of a cup of good butter and a half cup of finely sliced blanched almonds; work all together until a smooth stiff dough is formed, wrap in a napkin and place in cold dry place for two hours. Roll out one quarter of an inch thick, cut in even squares that will cover the bottom of an oil polished and floured baking pan and bake in a moderate oven twelve minutes. Cool and cut in finger-shaped pieces four inches long and two inches wide, spread with melted apricot jelly and place four pieces in a pile. Brush the top and sides with melted apricot jelly, dry and cover with French frosting, garnish the top with slices of candied fruit.

LAMB MAZALIAN

Cover the bottom of a baking pan with one sliced onion, one sliced carrot, one broken bay leaf, six celery leaves and one chopped red pepper. Season a boned leg of lamb with salt and pepper and rub with a crushed clove of garlic; set in the pan, rub all over with creamed butter and bake in a moderate oven. Remove the leg of lamb to a hot platter, skim the over the lamb, place six stuffed pimientos around and serve.

STUFFED PIMIENTOS

Cook half of a sliced onion in two tablespoonfuls of olive oil until a light golden color, add one and a half cupfuls of cooked rice, one and a half cupfuls of strained tomatoes, one tablespoonful of chili powder, and a half teaspoonful of salt. Cook until nearly dry, fill drained pimientos with the rice mixture, set on a buttered baking pan, place a small piece of butter on each and broil lightly in a medium oven.

PLUM PIE

Cover a deep pie pan with a good pie pastry, fill with two cupfuls of pitted fresh plums mixed with half a cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of flour, and two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice; dot with one tablespoonful of butter broken in small bits, cover with pastry and bake in a moderate oven. PICNIC FOR W.C.T.U. TODAY

A picnic for members and friends of the Los Angeles W.C.T.U. will be given today at the Pacific Palisades. The regular Thursday meeting of the organization at the First Methodist Episcopal Church has been postponed from tomorrow until the following Thursday.

Witness and Motorcycle Officer Tell Different Stories at Trial

Conflicting testimony regarding an altercation between Motorcycle Officer Snyder and W. E. Richardson was given in Justice Scott's court yesterday when Richardson went on trial charged with resisting an officer.

Officer Snyder declared Richardson became abusive when he warned the driver about cutting a traffic button on Whittier Boulevard, near Downey, and kicked him in the stomach when he sought to arrest him. Snyder said he would have let the driver go with a warning if Richardson had not used profanity in asserting his contempt for officers.

This version was different from that given by C. K. Curran, a passenger on the bus. Curran stated Richardson did not provoke the altercation and that Snyder struck the driver on the head with a pistol without cause.

Objecting to Snyder's conduct, Curran declared he was placed under arrest himself and was taken to jail, but was afterward released. After hearing the two witnesses Justice Scott continued the case until tomorrow.

Since the affair, which took place on the 12th inst., Richardson has been charged against Snyder with Under Sheriff Biallaskus, asking for the removal of the officer. Action on this complaint will be determined by Justice Scott's decision, it was said. The case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist. Atty. Bixton.

New Figueroa Street Plans Up to Engineer

The proposal to revise the plans for the North Figueroa extension, through Elysian Park to Dayton avenue, at an estimated saving of about $1,000,000 by the use of viaducts, was referred yesterday to the City Engineer for investigation and report.

Representatives of the Fourteenth District Civic League proffered their scheme for eliminating grade crossing and lessening the tunneling under Elysian Park at a conference of the Council Committee of Street Openings and Widening, and Bridges and Viaducts, by use of a large model. The Figueroa extension is one of the units of the Major Traffic Plan and the preliminary work is under way in the engineering department.

FAILURE OF ARREST LAID TO POLITICS

Detective Says Influence Failed Attempt to Bring Suspect from Oregon.

Frustrated by what he characterized as "political influence," Detective Lieutenant Walter Barr returned from Oregon yesterday with only one prisoner instead of the two he went after.

Barr brought back Dale Williams, bond salesman wanted on a charge of embezzlement of a $500 bond from H. E. Jodden, of 1211 Loew's State Building. Harry Vangelier, another bond salesman, wanted on a similar charge, proved to be a home of contention between Barr and Gov. Pierce of Oregon and so was not brought back, the local officer reported.

According to Barr, he had requested from Gov. Richardson for both men. Influence was brought to bear, Barr charged, so that the tradition of Vangelier was not granted. Barr made a complete report to Chief of Detectives Finison.

Long-Married Life Ended in Divorce Court

Robert E. Smith, reputedly wealthy, yesterday won a divorce in Judge Rolfe, L. Thompson's court from Mrs. Elsie E. Smith, to whom he had been married for more than twenty-eight years at the time of their separation in 1923. Smith charged his wife with being intimate with Joe Niccolaci and asserted his wife and Niccolaci were found together in a hotel room under suspicious circumstances.

Mrs. Smith filed a cross-complaint, accusing her husband of familiarity with Mrs. Alice Yambert, but Judge Thompson held her accusations were not substantiated by testimony at the trial. Judge Thompson granted Smith a decree and gave the custody of a daughter to Mrs. Smith, who will also receive $100 a month from Smith for the support of the child.

Man Seriously Injured in Fall From Scaffold

Robert McGregor, 48 years of age, a plasterer living at 144 North Orange street, Montebello, was dangerously injured yesterday afternoon when he fell from a scaffolding on the wall of the Gates Elementary School.

He was taken to the Clara Barton Hospital after being treated at the home of the Gates Elementary School.

McGregor is a native of Scotland and has been in the United States for many years. He has been married and has two children.

YUKON JAKE PIVOT POINT IN FILM SUIT

Poem of Hermit of Shark Tooth Shoal Lost Value by Pictures, Says Writer.

"The whitest bone from the Pale to the Blue was the hermit of Shark Tooth Shoal."

Thereupon lies "The Ballad of Yukon Jake," written in 1923 by Edward E. Paramore, Jr., of Carmel, a parody upon the poems of Robert W. Service, and yesterday point of issue in Federal Judge James's court in a suit against Mack Bennett Company, because of a film produced in 1924 called "Yukon Jake," featuring Ben Turpin.

Paramore asks $25,000 because of the copyright infringement and an accounting of the profits of the film, which was declared yesterday in court by his attorney to have been "a very poor picture."

The plaintiff contends that the poem's value was reduced to almost nothing by release of the picture, whereas before it was in great demand and was printed and sold throughout the country.

Depositions from literary critics throughout the East extolling the parody as a work of art were read in court by his attorney today.

Attorneys for the plaintiff are his brother, J. M. Paramore, and "Pint & McKay, Writers & Artists," who represent the defendant company.

"Auto Temper" Costs Driver Term in Jail

Police Judge Richardson yesterday sentenced Floyd Taylor, of 301 Arbutus street, to thirty days in jail for reckless driving, after testimony had indicated Taylor's automobile temper had provoked him to indulge in a wild drive on West Pico street that resulted in the wrecking of two automobiles.

Taylor, according to the testimony, became incensed when a car driven by Victor Carter of 1614 Winfield street, scraped his fender. He drove alongside Carter's machine and tried to crowd it into the curb, witnesses said. Carter stepped on the gas, and pulled out of the pocket, but was caught again two blocks farther west. Both cars piled into the curb and were wrecked. Police Sergeant Nord arrested Taylor.

DESERTION CHARGED IN WIFE'S SUIT

Husband's Asserted Threat to Leave Her Penniless, Told in Complaint.

Robert S. Howland, real estate broker, yesterday was made defendant in an action for separate maintenance filed in Superior Court by Mrs. Blanche K. Howland.

Mrs. Howland charged her husband with deserting her January 6, 1925.

According to her complaint, which was filed through Attorneys Lawler and Degnan, Howland told her on several occasions that unless she would take steps to get a divorce he would go to Mexico and get one himself, in which event he was said to have told her, she would not get a "single cent."

Mrs. Howland asserted her husband owned property valued at $100,000, and received a large income from his real estate business. She asked $300 a month for her support.

WATER HERE HELD GOITER PREVENTIVE

Chemists Say Children Largely Immune Due to Presence of Iodine.

Los Angeles children are largely immune from the dangers of goiter, according to statements yesterday by local chemists, who will discuss the goiter-prevention problem at the national convention of the American Chemical Society here next week. While the cure of goiter is a major problem of medicine, prevention in early life is often accomplished with the aid of chemicals.

In recent years it has been learned, leading chemists say, that a minute trace of iodine taken repeatedly in infancy will ward off goiter. Los Angeles is fortunate, chemists state, in that its water supply passes over an essentially arid territory from which the natural mineral iodine has not been washed out. Rochester, N. Y., by contrast, is forced at intervals to hang bags of sodium iodide, costing $4 a pound, in its reservoirs, while Chicago is planning to feed chocolate-coated iodine tablets to its school children.

SPACE LEASED FOR LONG BEACH COURT

The Board of Supervisors yesterday signed a contract with the Lidaugh, Building owners at Long Beach for the lease of three floors of the building to house the new Municipal Court in that city. The floors are the third, fifth and sixth, and will house five courts and a clerk's office. The rental is approximately $12,000 a year.

VALHALLA FIGHT EXPOSED

Witness Declares Three Cemeteries Raised Fund to Oppose Sale of Property in Enterprise

Testimony that three rival cemetery firms established a fund of $4000 to fight sales of sections in Valhalla Memorial Park and Mausoleum and that advertisements in the campaign resulting were untrue was given by O. L. Mills, formerly selling agent for Hollywood Cemetery yesterday in United States District Judge McCormick's court. Mills was a defense witness in the trial of four promoters of Valhalla who are charged with using the mails to defraud.

The three concerns, he said, were Hollywood Cemetery, Forest Lawn and Inglewood Memorial Parks. Advertisements in the campaign against Valhalla, he said, offered cemetery lots cheaper than they really were.

DEFENSE SCORES POINT

A point scored by the defense when Judge McCormick, in ruling on an objection to testimony relative to asserted scarcity of burial space in Los Angeles county, declared that business men on providing for the future were not anxious. Judge McCormick said he would instruct the jury to this effect, if asked to do so.

SURVEYOR TESTIFIES

J. H. Morton, former superintendent of Valhalla, testified John C. Osborne, one of the defendants, had given him blanket instructions to do anything needed in beautification plant.

N. F. Brown, former deputy county surveyor, testified that Grandview Cemetery is not in San

YOUNGSTERS IN CAPSIZED BOAT SAVED

Men Risk Lives in Rescue of Four Girls and Boy at Terminal Island

At the risk of their own lives, Charles Main, a city fireman of Engine Co. 34, and Philip Marine, 18 years of age, of 3021 Carolina street, San Pedro, yesterday rescued four girls and a boy whose skiff overturned near Terminal Island. Two of the youngsters, Hazel Huhta, 12, and Alice Bebbing, 13, were unconscious when brought to shore and revived only after forty minutes work by the pump crew of Engine Co. 40, stationed on Terminal Island.

Main and Marine were swimming about half a mile from shore off Brighton Beach, and beyond the surf line. They heard the screams from the capsized boat. Main got hold of the two smaller girls as they were sinking and took both to shore, while Marine rescued the others one at a time and made them cling to the upturned boat.

When Main reached shore and turned the girls over to others to be revived, he swam out again to the skiff and took turns with Marine in bringing the youngsters to shore. Others were Martha Huhta, 17; Muriel Finlayson, 18, and Angelo Farries, 17. None of them could swim.

Brighton Beach was crowded with bathers at the time, but no others were out so far and it was declared all five in the capsized party undoubtedly would have drowned before help could have reached them from shore. There is no life guard at the beach.

Both rescuers were exhausted when they got to shore on their last trip.

Suicide Laid to Nerve Strain of Motorman

Overwrought nerves resulting from strain due to congested traffic conditions are believed by police to be the cause of the suicide of Edward Wagner, 41 years of age, a Los Angeles street railway motorman. Wagner inhaled gas.

His body was found by the landlady of the rooming house in which he lived at 2612 10th street. No note was found. Members of the police homicide squad are endeavoring to locate relatives of the dead man. The body was taken to the Los Angeles undertaking parlors.

PROGRAM MADE FOR SOUTHLAND EDITORS

Officials of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce are aiding in the work of arranging entertainment plans for the delegates who are to attend the convention of the Southern California Editorial Association there August 7 and 8.

About 150 persons, delegates and their families, are expected to attend the convention. A sightseeing trip through Hollywood and over Mulholland Way and visits to Grauman's Egyptian Theater, the Pilgrimage Play and the Hollywood Bowl are being planned. Members of the committee directly in charge of the entertainment plans are Warner Van Valkenburg, B. Y. Taft and L. J. Olson.

AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS' WEEKLY PRIZE CONTEST

To encourage the making of more and better photographs for rotogravure reproduction The Times offers the following cash prizes weekly for photos by nonprofessionals:

$10, first prize.
$5, second prize.
$2 each for all other photographs accepted for publication.

The first contest began Sunday and ends next Saturday evening. All pictures received during this week will be judged as entries in the first contest. All received after next Saturday and before the following Sunday will be entered in the second contest, and so on.

The first list of prize-winners will be announced August 9 and subsequent lists every Sunday thereafter.

All prize-winning photographs will be reproduced in the rotogravure section. The first set will appear August 23, comprising the prize-winning photographs of August 9.

Everybody is eligible except professional photographers and employees of The Times or their relatives. There are no geographical limitations on contestants except that, other things being equal, a Southern California photograph will be given the preference.

Address all pictures to Photo Contest Editor, The Times, Los Angeles, Cal.

The Times cannot undertake to return any pictures submitted.

Photographs submitted in this contest should be printed on No. 1 or single-weight paper, 5x7 or 8x10 in size. Write name and address and title of picture—if it has one—with a soft lead pencil on reverse of print. Don't lean on your pencil or the impression will show through. Tell where the picture was taken.

The Times reserves the right to call for and use the negative of any photograph accepted for publication. The negative will be returned to the owner after use.

As photographs are to be judged primarily for rotogravure reproduction, keep in mind that the best results in this medium are secured through the use of sharp photographs, with a good range of tone. Soft focus photographs are not generally desirable. An exception is where the picture is diffused to center attention on the part to be emphasized. Black copy is not acceptable. Most photographers find that the best results are obtained by the use of ferrotyped or glossy paper.

Every photograph submitted should tell a story which is so obvious or so provocative of thought that a caption or identifying line is not really necessary. Photography is an art; use it as an art.

DENIES HE TOOK PART IN MURDER

Adams, on Stand, Admits Aiding Rincon in Disposal of Hermit's Body

Denying that he was implicated in the killing of T. K. Ullman, hermit of Elizabeth Lake, slain for $4, Willis Adams testified in Judge Keetch's court yesterday that he helped the confederate, Alphonse Rincon, dispose of the body because he feared for his life. Ullman, reputed to be wealthy, was beaten to death with a crowbar and robbed of $1,000 on March 17 last near his mountain cabin.

Adams declared he accompanied Rincon to Ullman's cabin, not knowing what Rincon intended to do. Fear of death at the hands of Rincon, he said, caused him not to interfere in the slaying.

Rincon will take the stand tomorrow. He is expected to accuse Adams of the murder, as he did when the pair were originally arrested.

The case is being prosecuted by Dep. Dist. Atty. Davis and Costello.

City Hall Ruling Being Analyzed by City Attorney

The decision of Judge Hartley Shaw, holding against the contract for the architectural work on the new City Hall granted to the firm of Curlett and Beelman by the old City Council, was being analyzed yesterday by the City Attorney preparatory to making a report to the Council.

No statement was issued as to the intentions of Curlett and Beelman, who were defendants in the action.

Under a section of the new City Charter work of a technical and special character, of occasional appearance, may be awarded without advertising by the Board of Public Works, which has complete jurisdiction in the case of the City Hall. Thus it is considered that the board might now award a contract for the architectural work without the formality of advertising. The former board awarded this contract to John C. Austin, Albert C. Martin and John Parkins, but it was never approved by the City Attorney.

Jack London's Widow Here to Assist in Film

Charman K. London, widow of Jack London and an authoress in her own right, has left her ranch in Northern California to act as associate director to Ralph Ince in the making of "The Sea Wolf," one of the most famous stories of her late husband.

Since coming to Hollywood she has observed and studied the films, and those who make them.

"We lack enough serious actors and actresses in the movies," she says, "but there are many who are studious, aspiring and artistic."

She says she has been told that sex plays, social-problem ideas, and "high society" drama have become passé, and that elements emotional and primitive drama are wanted.

As a result of the assistance of the Community Chest, the Los Angeles Orphan's Asylum, for the first time since its inception, will abolish its annual shower day, which heretofore fell the first week in August. It was announced yesterday by Sister Cecilia, Sister Superior of the orphanage.

SHERIFF HOLDS Man on Request From Modesto

Ramondo Castillano just can't keep out of trouble. Deputy Sheriff Catlin and Sepulveda commented yesterday when they locked him in the County Jail at the request of Modesto authorities who are said to charge him with grand larceny. Castillano was recently released from the institution, they said, after serving a term on a misdemeanor charge.

He hunted up the wife and family of Salvador Lopez, a cell mate at Belvedere Gardens, and got them to load Lopez's belongings in his car and start south with him with the story that he was going after $100 to get Lopez out of jail, according to the deputies.

Castillano, they said, told Mrs. Lopez in this city somewhere and she said to charge him with grand larceny. The officers here do not know on what the new Modesto charge is based.

COUNCIL CONSIDERS SALARY ADJUSTMENTS

A list of about fifty salary adjustments from various city departments was considered yesterday by the City Council, certain of them being approved and others referred to the committee of the whole. In the cases of those persons now employed under temporary arrangements and new positions created under the new city charter, the Council instructed the City Attorney to draw the necessary ordinances. In many instances the new Councilmen, in particular, wanted an explanation of the situation, and approval of these was postponed.

HOLLYWOOD CHAMBER PROGRESSES IN DRIVE

Considerable progress has been made during the past few days in the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce drive to dispose of 200 life memberships at $250 each to raise $50,000 for the construction of a new building at Sunset Boulevard and Hudson Avenue. Only thirty-three memberships remain to be sold, according to Carl Bush, executive secretary. The campaign is being handled by the nine service clubs in Hollywood.

GIRL SEES BURGLAR BUT REMAINS QUIET

When Miss Gertrude Humphrey, 18 years of age, awoke in the still gray hours of dawn yesterday she observed a dim form fitting about her room by mistake. She lay still, then covered her head and waited, police stated. The man had got into her room by mistake, she thought. Presently he went out the door. A little later Miss Humphrey arose. Then she found that the nocturnal visitor had taken her purse containing $15.00.

ORPHANAGE SHOWER DAY TO BE ABOLISHED

As a result of the assistance of the Community Chest, the Los Angeles Orphan's Asylum, for the first time since its inception, will abolish its annual shower day, which heretofore fell the first week in August. It was announced yesterday by Sister Cecilia, Sister Superior of the orphanage.

ALIENISTS BATTLE TO SAVE SCOTT

High-Priced Specialists Test Son of Killer in Fight to Cheat Noose

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

CHICAGO, July 23.—Circled in the shadowy death cell in the County Jail, a chamber he has occupied through three periods of terror of death, Russell T. Scott, slayer of Joseph Maurer, is daily being tested by long periods undergoing tests by psychiatrists. The defense hopes to convince a jury that Scott has become insane since sentence of death was passed upon him and escape the rope via the same route taken by Gene Gearty, a notorious killer.

Just a year ago, in the same grim, lofty room, Richard Leeb and Nathan Leopold, Jr., the "supernatural" murderers of little Bobby Frank, were being tested by a dozen high-priced alienists. Some of the same experts have been employed in the Scott case.

Dr. H. S. Hulbert, who figured largely in the Leopold-Leob defense, spent most of the day examining Scott.

The hearing, beginning next Tuesday, promises to be a battle of alienists.

Unlike Leopold and Leeb, Scott cannot hope to go to the penitentiary. If he is declared insane he will be sent to an asylum, and if he regains his sanity at any time he will be brought back and hanged. If sane he will be executed.

Children Go on Same Train as Dead Parents

The three children of Louis Gamble and his wife, Mrs. Mary Gamble, formerly of Hawthorne, were sent east yesterday on the same train with the bodies of their parents by the Travelers' Aid Society. Gamble killed his wife and himself last week.

The youngsters, Howard, 5 years of age, Herman, 6, and Helen, 4, will be met at Chicago by Travelers' Aid representatives and transferred to a train to Canton, O., where they will be met by their grandfather, Edwin Gamble. After the funeral, which will be conducted at Canton, the children will go to live with their other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bland of Indianapolis.

Woman Struck Down by Auto Critically Hurt

Her skull possibly fractured and suffering from numerous bruises as the result of being struck by an auto at Twelfth and Main streets, Mrs. Bertha Osthoff, 64 years of age, of 1415 South Westmoreland avenue, lay at the Receiving Hospital yesterday afternoon in a critical condition. The accident occurred early in the morning. The car which struck the woman was driven by Fred Holman of 174 West Santa Barbara avenue, according to the police. Mrs. Osthoff was crossing the street when Holman's car ran into her, it was stated. An investigation of the accident is being made.

STAR RESTS

PREPARES FOR BIGGEST ROLE OF WHOLE CAREER

By Grace Kingsley

When a champion faces what may prove the greatest opportunity of his career, he goes into training, and that is just what Monte Blue will do when he finishes his present picture this week. As the Warner Brothers plan to make something possible to make the next Monte Blue picture, "The White Chief," one of the greatest western epics ever produced, it is considered only fitting that this hardworking star be allowed to indulge in the relaxation of doing what ever he pleases for the next six weeks or so.

Blue's idea of training may be different from yours and mine. Or again it may not. But that is not the point. The fact remains that the star's idea of training really is to train, but to take a complete rest as far away as possible from picture making. Wherefore he will start his vacation auspiciously by attending the famous Silver Gate Swim at San Diego next Sunday as the guest of honor. And as such guest, he will receive a handsome silver trophy as first prize to the winner of the nationally noted swimming meet. Monte is a prominent member of the Hollywood Athletic Club, the strong team of swimmers entered by that organization have determined to bring the Monte Blue trophy back home to a place of honor among the fast-growing group of prizes which the Hollywood athletes have been annexing lately.

Following this event, Mr. and Mrs. Blue will leave for a tour of the wilds of the Pacific Northwest, where they intend to enjoy a few weeks in the quietude of the outdoors. Their trip will culminate in a visit to the home of Mrs. Blue's parents in Seattle.

When the star returns to Hollywood he will find everything ready for the production of "The White Chief." The Warner Brothers' research department is now delving into everything written and developed of the West during its early days in an ambitious effort to top all western pictures. It is the intention to make the entire production in the Western Rockies where the natural scenery and background can be found as a proper setting for the story. Eric Kenton, who directed Monte in "Red Hot Tires," will be in charge of the production.

ROBERTA ARNOLD TO HAVE NOTABLE CAST

When Roberta Arnold opens at the Playhouse in the "Hottentots," brand-new comedy-drama, "Playthings," on the night of August 3, she will not be lacking in the talent support to get off her own talents.

Hopie Down, who has been playing ingenue in New York since she quit her native California a few seasons ago, is to have an important role in the production, but who has recently distinguished herself on the stage, notably in "Lullaby," will have an important part. Douglas Gilmore, Gabriel Byrne, Tom Sherry and Kenneth Gibson, son of Ida Gibson, will supply the talent, while Eric Kenton will have the feminine character lead. Rehearsals have been going on since last week and Thomas Wilkes feels now that not a single scene has been left unturned to make the play a success.

Irene Rich Willbach

From every appearance, Irene Rich will have to postpone her intended trip to Europe. She is to appear in "The White Chief" in the role of Mrs. Blue. She was scheduled to leave for Europe last week, but her departure has been postponed until after the completion of "The White Chief." Who "Wants"?

Wanted, but the story, "Compromises," was not scheduled, and having been anxious for some time to make this picture she postponed her trip until this week. It is in production now, with Croeland directing. And now with the selection of the cast, the picture of Mrs. Erling, she will put the trip aside once more.

Miss Sothorn has been working with Mr. Lubitch, although they have both been in the Warner lot for the past three years. According to Mr. Lubitch, two of the most difficult roles of the cast are those of Mrs. Erling and Irene Rich and Clive Brook. The other principals will be cast this week and work will begin within two weeks.

Sara Sothorn Here

Sara Sothorn may go over to London and do such good work that her Majesty, the Queen herself, no less, does her the honor of telling her that she is a good actress, but all the same when Sara has a chance she simply cannot stay away from her much loved and cozy cottage home in Southern California.

This noted young actress has just come out from New York, where, you remember, three seasons ago she made such a tremendous hit in "The Fool," and is visiting her parents at Inglewood.

test for pictures at the Lasky studio, these days, but no matter how that turns out, she is promised to go to New York within a week to start rehearsals in a new play called "The Dagger."

Dorothy Mackall Signs

If it isn't one thing it's another with Dorothy Mackall, and try as she may she can't get a vacation. The latest news is to the effect that Miss Mackall, who recently came back to New York, is to play leading feminine role in "Joanna," which will be an Edwin Carewe production made for First National, with George Archainbaud directing.

And while we are on the subject of First National's dolgers, it may not be amiss to mention that while George Archainbaud is in New York directing "The Savage," First National is preparing a new story to be made on the west coast, the title of which will be

Jacqueline as Crystal Gazer

Jacqueline Logan, Vivacious leading lady in current film at the Criterion Theater, "If Marriage Falls".

'Green Goddess' Slated to Open Thursday Night

Alice Elliot Hodgkin, former leading woman of the Majestic Theater, Los Angeles, who has been in retirement for two years, is to come forth to the light of the stage again when she appears with the Pasadena Community Players, Mrs. Hodgkin, who in the interval of her retirement has acquired "the most wonderful baby in the world," has been living in Altadena and has been much interested in the Community Playhouse, therefore she has consented to appear there in "The Green Goddess," which is to open Thursday night, to continue for eleven performances, including Saturday matinee.

The play, in which Mrs. Hodgkin will be seen in the role of an English woman at the mercy of an impulsive rajah and in a mad race to the Himalayas, will be recalled as having been the starring vehicle of George Bellas, a year or two ago. This is its first stage presentation in the vicinity.

The melodrama was written by William Archer, the famous English dramatist, and his wife, who was his only play. Others appearing in the leading roles will be Robert Hill and Maurice Wells. Beautiful settings have been prepared by Robert H. Sharpe, architect of the Playhouse, and the play will be one of the most spectacular ever offered in Pasadena.

'Soul Fire' is Current Film at The Alhambra

The combination of John Stuart Robertson, director, and his wife, known to the screen as Josephine Lovett, the forces behind the making of Richard Barthelmess' new production, "Soul Fire," now at the Alhambra, is unique in the field of motion pictures.

Miss Lovett, or rather Mrs. Robertson, adapted Martin Brown's drama of a young musical genius, "Great Music," into its present film form, carrying the new title "Soul Fire." She has been her husband's business partner ever since he entered the motion-picture industry with the old Vitaphone company.

The Robertsons are ideally married. Like her husband, before her marriage, Mrs. Robertson was on the stage. Robertson first saw her playing the little sister in Henry Miller's "Heart's East." But it was not until several years later that he met and married her. For years she has been his constant adviser in everything he does. The Robertsons live at Great Neck, Long Island.

Unusual Thrill in 'White Desert' at Loew's State

One of the most unusual thrills ever seen in a picture—a mighty avalanche of snow and ice that plunges down a mountain side into the heart of a little colony buried in the valley—is on view at Loew's State, where "White Desert" is being shown. This tale of the fight of a railroad company to tunnel the Rockies is one of the most gripping shown here in some time.

Reginald Barker, famed thrill director, made this picture. Claire Windsor, Pat O'Malley, Robert Frazer and a great cast play the film which is based on Courtney Riley Cooper's novel.

Young Violinist Will Start at Forum Saturday

A youthful musical genius who has made Los Angeles his home for four years is Calmon Luboviski, who will begin an engagement at the Forum Theater Saturday.

Luboviski will appear at the Forum as a soloist and also as the conductor of the Russian String Quartet, with piano augmentation. He is to have a positively free hand in the development of his art.

Assisting him will be such widely known musicians as Julian Bork, Lesky, the Grand Menchenko and Mishka Gega.

WAGNER ENTHRALLS BOWL AUDIENCE

"Dreams" and "Forest Murreurs" Appeal on Reiner Program

BY ISABEL MOISE JONES

The music of Wagner held a large audience enthralled last night at the Hollywood Bowl. A varied representation of excerpts from the works of the great German music dramatist was arranged by Fritz Reiner, the conductor. The program, ranged from the lighter moods expressed in "Rienzi" to the huge swaying rhythms of "The Ride of the Valkyries" with its eight French horns and its challenge to the skies.

All of this music, excepting, perhaps the "Forest Murreurs" from the "Siegfried" and "Siegfried Climbing the Rock to Brunnhilde," is too well known for comment. The picture of "Parafal" of "Tannhauser" and "Das Rheingold," unfolded before the throng as the impressive Wagnerian harmonies floated across that vast Bowl.

"Dreams," adapted from "Tristan and Isolde," and the "Forest Murreurs," were probably the most popular. Reiner's readings of these numbers was at once tender and dignified. The strings sang forth with a rich and great Wagnerian sound. The music was so beautiful.

Heard Dr. Bauecher gave a distinguished presentation of the obnoxious Reiner and his orchestra. The music was so beautiful. The strings sang forth with a rich and great Wagnerian sound. The music was so beautiful.

The "Entrance of the Gods into Valhalla" was also an unsurpassed performance, quite dull and drab, beside the interpretations of the German Reiner and his orchestra, to which the Bowl audiences have grown accustomed in seasons past. Reiner was acceptable, but cannot be described as individual or remarkable in any way.

His Wagner is acceptable, but cannot be described as individual or remarkable in any way.

May McAvoy Cast in 'Lady Windemere's Fan'

According to an announcement made last night by Jack Warner, Warner Brothers studio, May McAvoy has accepted terms to enact the title role in Oscar Wilde's successful stage play, "Lady Windemere's Fan." This statement puts to rest rumors which have been floating in Hollywood for the past several weeks, since it was announced that the play had been purchased by a local concern to be filmed.

'Commandments' Photographed in California

Well-founded reports persisted in Pasadena that a well-known stage actress was to be imported to portray the stellar characterization. This claim was refuted when it was learned that Miss McAvoy was being started in a universal picture, and had refused the terms offered her by Warner Brothers.

"I consider Miss McAvoy one of the foremost ingenue artists on the screen," Jack Warner said last night, "and it is our intention to surround her with an all-star cast, including Irene Rich, Matt Moore and Clive Brooks."

Miss McAvoy is best remembered as having enacted the leading feminine characterization of Esther in "The Happy Warrior," which is to be released in October.

French Life is Depicted in New Cameo Picture

No detail is spared in depicting wild night life at the Dead Duck Cafe in "Playing With Souls," which opens at the Cameo Saturday.

Besides this world-famed Montmartre resort, another cafe, an apocryphal, is shown in full blast. There are also close-ups in a notorious casino of Paris—another triumphant touch of rich and accurate detail in this rousing and unusual picture.

The cast includes Jacqueline Logan, Mary Astor, Clive Brook, Buster Collier, Belle Bennett and others.

ASTOR WITH ROACH

Gertrude Astor, whose beauty and poise have placed her among the most popular stars of the screen, is to play the role of "heavies" in the new film "The Last Days of Pompeii," which is being directed by James W. Horne. The balance of the cast includes Lucille LaVerne, Katharine Cornell, William Gillette, Bobby Burns, Jerry Collier, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres and Charles de Roche.

PLAYERS ADDED

Nat Carr and Otto Lederer have been added to the cast of "His Last Days in Pompeii," which is being directed by James W. Horne. The balance of the cast includes Lucille LaVerne, Katharine Cornell, William Gillette, Bobby Burns, Jerry Collier, Theodore Roberts, Agnes Ayres and Charles de Roche.

role opposite Anna Q. Nilsson in June Mathis version of Edith C. Chausse's story, "The Vengeance of Medea," which the noted scenarist is producing for First National.

Walter McGrail, newest contract member of the Fox studio, has completed his featured role in "When the Door Opens," a play by Reginald Barker production. McGrail's part is of that new type of characterization which has lately reached the screen, hovering between leads and heavies, yet not to be classed as either. It is one of the strongest roles this actor has enacted and was largely responsible for the contract which he has signed.

Guido Trento, well-known Italian screen actor, who has recently arrived from Europe, will remain here to pursue his star-quest in a new picture, "The Happy Warrior," which is being produced by the Fox studio.

Lincoln Stedman is playing a featured role in "Sealed Lips," which Tony Gaudio is directing for Warner Productions. Lincoln has introduced some new "personas" into the part, which he claims have never been used before in pictures.

Montague Love is now in the logging district of the State of Washington, fifty miles from a city. He is on location in the famous "Players' Lasky" production, "The Ancient Highway," in which he is being featured with Jack Holt and Billie Dove.

Carlo Schipa, Italian screen-player, is very much occupied with the reading of Italian plays from which one will be chosen for his second appearance at the Gamut Club early in September.

Winona Winter, musical comedy star who has signed a contract with the West Coast Theaters, Inc. for a vaudeville tour of the State, is having special gowns designed for her by a Los Angeles modiste.

John Ince, who has established his headquarters in the California studios, has just completed "The Perfect Crime," with E. K. Lincoln, who has just returned to the screen, and Wanda Hawley in the leading roles.

Wallace MacDonald, who left this week from New York to play in an unnamed Whitman Bennett production, will be directed by Webster Campbell in this picture. The curious fact connected with this engagement is that MacDonald, now based in New York, has several years, directed Campbell at Santa Barbara, for the American Film Company, many years ago. Today the director is playing under the direction of the actor.

Neely Edwards is rapidly nearing the completion of "Cat Tales," which he was a director for Universal. Following this, Edwards will immediately begin on "The Last Days of Pompeii," which is already in continuity form, although untitled.

Robert Ober, popular screen player, is vacationing at Glen Ranch, in the San Bernardino mountains with his wife, Maude Fulton.

Conway Tearle has completed his

LLOYD FILM BOOKED FOR INDEFINITE RUN

Harold Lloyd's "The Freshman" will have the longest run any motion picture ever enjoyed in a legitimate motion-picture theater in New York. According to information received yesterday by William R. Fraser, general manager of the Lloyd Corporation, the latest Lloyd production is to have its east coast premiere in the Colony Theater, on Broadway, New York, and has been booked for an indefinite run calculated to establish a new record there.

The longest run record there has been held by "Charlie's Aunt," which ran for 100 weeks at the Colony. The latter house is a new one, opened last Christmas by S. B. Moore, and seats 2000 persons. Hereafter all the Lloyd features have been run at the Strand Theater in New York. A noteworthy incident in connection with the latest Lloyd comedy is the tremendous number of indefinite runs being accorded it.

The New York run is to open September 30, the national release date.

Lillian Elliott, noted character woman, has been signed to play with Jackie Coogan in the juvenile star's latest production, "Old Clothes," now being worked on by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studio, under the direction of Eddie Cline.

Miss Elliott is playing her initial role with the little star, though this is not the first time she has been associated with the Coogan family, having formerly appeared in the same stock company, the California, with Jackie's mother, "Aunt Fanny," in "Old Clothes" yesterday. James Mason has signed with Universal, and will play leads with that company. She formerly was with the Roach company under contract.
